To whom it may concern,

As the Director of the Microsoft Learn Student Ambassadors program, I verify that Mohammad Noor Islam graduated our community as a Gold Student Ambassador. The Gold milestone is earned by a select few students in the program, and represents their extensive contributions, leadership and technical aptitude, and mastery of the skills and lessons offered by the program.

As a Gold Ambassador, they demonstrated a high level of program engagement throughout their tenure as a Microsoft Learn Student Ambassador. However, to have achieved this milestone, the student contributes and leads in several different ways:

- Organizing and hosting events for other Student Ambassadors
- Speaking as a special guest at Student Ambassador events and conferences
- Creating workshop content for the Microsoft Learn Student Ambassadors
- Expanding and educating their local tech community on Microsoft fundamentals
- Interacting with and mentoring other students on our Student Ambassadors Teams
- And so much more!

Our Program Operations team—including Cloud Advocates from Microsoft—spends significant time working with and mentoring Gold Ambassadors as they prepare for graduation and their time beyond the community. I truly believe Mohammad has obtained the skills needed to thrive in their next venture and I am eager to see what their future endeavors hold.

Sincerely,

Pablo Veramendi
Global Director, Audience Evangelism
